

(Free) Lively Advertising Cuts of the Twenties and Thirties: 1,102 Illustrations of Animals, Food and Dining, Children, etc. (Dover Pictorial Archive)

Lively Advertising Cuts of the Twenties and Thirties: 1,102 Illustrations of Animals, Food and Dining, Children, etc. (Dover Pictorial Archive)

From Dover Publications
*audiobook / ebooks / Download PDF / ePub / DOC

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#3609165 in eBooks 2013-10-29 2013-10-01File Name: B00A3ZECII | File size: 38.Mb

From Dover Publications : Lively Advertising Cuts of the Twenties and Thirties: 1,102 Illustrations of Animals, Food and Dining, Children, etc. (Dover Pictorial Archive) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lively Advertising Cuts of the Twenties and Thirties: 1,102 Illustrations of Animals, Food and Dining, Children, etc. (Dover Pictorial Archive):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A great source of 20's-30's artworkBy Denton Newman JrA great source of royalty free artwork for period advertising. Just what I was looking for. I've used Dover books for years.

This comprehensive anthology of graphic cuts—created by talented artists decades ago—offers today's professional illustrators and commercial artists a wealth of engaging designs. Suitable for a vast number of advertisements and announcements, for use on greeting cards and menus, as well as for a host of craft projects, these attractive cuts will be indispensable to anyone wanting to add a nostalgic touch to a project or assignment. Painstakingly selected from magazines, newspapers, books, and catalogs of the 1920s and 30s, here are over 1,000 distinctive, boldly outlined drawings and silhouettes. They embrace a wide variety of categories: Food and dining: restaurant scenes, delicatessen counters, shopping baskets filled with food, plates of mouth-watering desserts, waiters and waitresses Amusements: magicians, fortune-tellers, card tricks Children's activities: fishing, flying kites, reading, running, jumping rope Women's fashions: hairstyles, hats, furs, jewelry Animals: dogs, cats, cows, sheep, chickenshellip; and much, much more. Casual browsers will be delighted with the volume's engaging visual commentary on early twentieth-century American life. Artists and illustrators looking for royalty-free graphics filled with period charm will find them in this extensive collection.

From the Back Cover This comprehensive anthology of graphic cuts—created by talented artists decades ago—offers today's professional illustrators and commercial artists a wealth of engaging designs. Suitable for a vast number of advertisements and announcements, for use on greeting cards and menus, as well as for a host of craft projects, these attractive cuts will be indispensable to anyone wanting to add a nostalgic touch to a project or assignment. Painstakingly selected from magazines, newspapers, books, and catalogs of the 1920s and 30s, here are over 1,000 distinctive, boldly outlined drawings and silhouettes. They embrace a wide variety of categories: Food and dining: restaurant scenes, delicatessen counters, shopping baskets filled with food, plates of mouth-watering desserts, waiters and waitresses Amusements: magicians, fortune-tellers, card tricks Children's activities: fishing, flying kites, reading, running, jumping rope Women's fashions: hairstyles, hats, furs, jewelry Animals: dogs, cats, cows, sheep, chickenshellip; and much, much more. Casual browsers will be delighted with the volume's engaging visual commentary on early twentieth-century American life. Artists and illustrators looking for royalty-free graphics filled with period charm will find them in this extensive collection. Dover (1990) original publication.