This book seemed to be mostly a vehicle for displaying other artists' work that was made with maps. It was nice as a gallery of work but that's not what I was looking for from a book.2 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Another great creative book using mapsBy A. CoCoA great addition to my collection of art books using maps in creative ways. Nicely done.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. from elaborate fine art to simple arts crafts displaysBy MichelleMy daughter's new husband really loves old maps, so she wanted to surprise him by decorating the office in their new home with maps, and so I got her this book. It's a serious walkthrough of a wide range of decorating styles and approaches, from elaborate fine art to simple arts crafts displays. I like how map motifs and literal maps are both used in so many different ways. She's finding that printing old maps she finds online to be a way to save money moving forward, and to discover all sorts of maps -- everything from medieval maps, to vintage Disneyland maps, to the classic Middle Earth map that Tolkien drew himself. She was able to do a variety of things with the new study, and he's thrilled. We both recommend this book.

Journey through the craft of Making Art with Maps. From origami to paper cutting and decoupage, love of paper crafting has soared, and with it the variety of paper types used by artists. Among these are maps - an apt choice for any crafter: they're easy to find, often free, meant to be folded, and their colorful surfaces add an allure of travel to every project. Making Art from Maps is equal parts inspiration and fun. Jill K. Berry, author of Map Art Lab returns, bringing her expertise in maps and her wide-ranging skills as an artist with her. With her cartographic connections, she takes you on a gallery tour, introducing you to the work of some of the most exciting artists creating with maps today. Designer interviews are accompanied by 25 accessible how-to projects of her own design that teach many of the techniques used by the gallery artists.

"I LOVE this book!" - Shellie Wilson, Craft Gossip
