From Palgrave Macmillan : Mapping South Asia through Contemporary Theatre: Essays on the Theatres of India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Nepal and Sri Lanka (Studies in International Performance) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mapping South Asia through Contemporary

Theatre: Essays on the Theatres of India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Nepal and Sri Lanka (Studies in International Performance):

While remapping the region by examining enduring historical and cultural connections, this study discusses multiple traditions and practices of theatre and performance in five South Asian countries within their specific political and socio-cultural contexts.

“The volume, as a whole, makes an important contribution in mapping the contours of the theatres of the South Asian nations. All the essays record the urge for articulations in the theatres, produced and received often under volatile circumstances. In brief, this comprehensive study of the theatres of South Asia has been a distinctive addition to recent theatre studies.” (Abhijit Sen, Asiatic, Vol. 9 (2), December, 2015)
