Jonathan Charley : Memories of Cities: Trips and Manifestoes (Ashgate Studies in Architecture) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Memories of Cities: Trips and Manifestoes (Ashgate Studies in Architecture):

Memories of Cities is a collection of essays that explore different ways of writing about the political and economic history of the built environment. Drawing upon fiction and non-fiction, and illustrated by original photographs, the essays employ a variety of narrative forms including memoirs, letters, and diary entries. They take the reader on a journey to cities such as Glasgow, Paris, Moscow, St. Petersburg, and Marseille, laying bare the contradictions of capitalist architectural and urban development, whilst simultaneously revealing alternative visions of how buildings and cities might be produced and organised.
