From Routledge : The Politics of Making (Critiques: Critical Studies in Architectural Humanities) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Politics of Making (Critiques: Critical Studies in Architectural Humanities):

A unique collection of contemporary writings, this book explores the politics involved in the making and experiencing of architecture and cities from a cross-cultural and global perspective Taking a broad view of the word 'politics', the essays address a range of questions, including: What is the relationship between politics and the making of space? What role has theory played in reinforcing or resisting political power? What are the political difficulties associated with working relationships? Do the products of our making construct our identity or liberate us? A timely volume, focusing on an interdisciplinary debate on the politics of making, this is valuable reading for all students, professionals and academics interested or working in architectural theory.
